CLEMSON FOOTBALL STOCK IS SOARING

SINCE DEFEAT OF TENNESSEE SATURDAY SAYS PROF. GANTT

COLLEGE SPIRIT

Is Revived at Clemson and is Stronger Than Ever Before—Are Expecting Victory.

"The spectacular victory of Clemson over Tennessee Saturday, 3 to 0, has sent Tiger stock soaring," said Prof. Gantt, president of the Clemson College Athletic Association, when seen by a representative of the Intelligencer in Pendleton yesterday. Tennessee was one of three claimants for the southern championship last year and had not been beaten for two years. The news of the victory created such a furor among the cadets as has not been the good pleasure of many to witness in almost a dozen years. Such singing, yelling and general jubilation as was indulged in about the big bonfire Saturday night was enough to satisfy the heart of the most exacting fan. The revival of old time college spirit seems to have arrived. The coaches are happy, the players are joyful, the corps jubilant, and everybody is in merry mood.

"Preparations for the biggest game of the season, from the campus standpoint, are going merrily on. The game is that with Auburn, to be in Anderson on Saturday, October 16. Auburn was another one of the claimants of the southern championship last year. Whether the Tigers shall have both the honor and the pleasure of sending another championship team's hope aglimmering for this season remains to be seen. But that they will make a supreme effort to do so, there is not the slightest doubt. Those who see the game Saturday will likely see one of the fiercest struggles of the gridiron season. Anderson is full of Clemson supporters who will root for the Tigers right loyally; but there are old Auburn players and students there too, and they will have many friends helping them out. So each team will do its best.

"Nearly all of the cadets will go down Saturday. Anderson people will have the opportunity of seeing and hearing what the largest body of students they have ever seen at a football game in their good town can do and shout and sing and yell and school. Most of the faculty and their families will also go along. There is no other game of consequence on the campus, and they are anxious to see what Tigers can do. A special train will take the corps and others down and back."

Hadn't Served It Before. Once a short little woman and her tall husband went to a cafe of the cheaper sort for dinner.

"Will you have oysters?" asked the husband, glancing over the bill of fare.

"Yes," said the little woman, as she tried in vain to touch her feet to the floor. "And Henry I want a hassock."

Henry nodded, and as he handed this order to the waiter, said: "Yes, and bring the lady a hassock."

"One hassock?" asked the waiter, with what Henry thought more than ordinary interest, as he nodded in the affirmative. Still the waiter did not go, but brushed the tablecloth with a towel and rearranged the articles on it several times, while his face got very red.

Then he came around to the husband's side, and, speaking in a whisper, said: "Say, Mister, I haven't been here long, and I'm not on to all these things. Will the lady have the hassock broiled or fried?"

DRINK MORE WATER IF KIDNEYS BOTHER

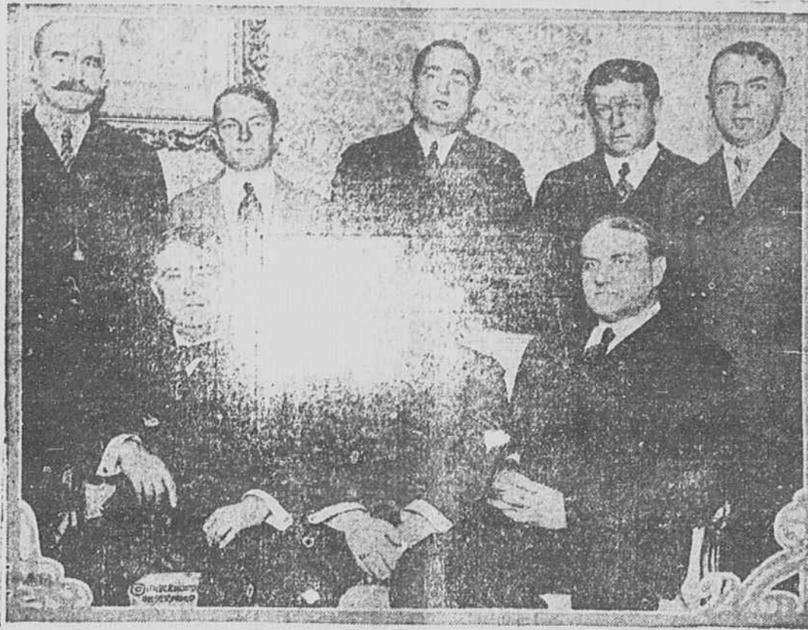

Eat less meat and take Salts for Backache or Bladder trouble.

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush off the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

Eat less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

PARAMOUNT PICTURES WILL BE SHOWN HERE

Manager Trowbridge Signs Contract With the Paramount People for This City.

Manager Trowbridge of the Anderson theatre last night announced that beginning with November 1, he would have the Paramount photoplay service at the Anderson two nights every week, Monday and Fridays. This will be pleasing news to the people of Anderson for once they had the habit of watching for the Paramount service and they will be glad to have it back.

Mr. Trowbridge also announced that the Paramount service would cost him just exactly three times as much on those two nights as the regular service. He intends to try this service out and will see if the people want Paramount productions shown in Anderson.

The Paramount people are today spending thousands of dollars to obtain the latest in photoplays and to have the leading legitimate actors and actresses appear before their machines. Recently they paid Geraldine Farrar $60,000 for one performance. Other noted stars with the Paramount people include Mary Pickford, Cyril Maude, and others all of which is so well advertised in the leading magazines to deserve comment here.

Mr. Trowbridge announces that the price of admission on Paramount nights will be just the same as on other nights, 5 and 10 cents. On the opening week he will give away handsome pictures of Mary Pickford and Marguerite Clarke to each purchaser of a ticket. On Monday night one picture will be given away and on Friday night the other.

Mr. Trowbridge will have full releases of the service and will be able to give to the people of Anderson the opportunity of seeing the stars of the world on the screen. Later Geraldine Farrar will appear in "Carmen," which has been creating so much comment in Atlanta, New York, Boston, Chicago and other places. In addition to Carmen he will have numerous other photoplays of wide repute.

A TWICE-TOLD TALE

One of Interest to Make Readers.

Good news bears repeating, and when it is confirmed after a long lapse of time, even if we hesitated to believe it at first hearing, we feel secure in accepting its truth now. The following experience of an Anderson man is confirmed after passing years. J. W. Erskine, retired farmer, 640 N. Fant St., Anderson, says: "The first symptom of my kidney trouble was pains through the small of my back and my back got so sore and lame that I could straighten. My kidneys didn't act as they should and at times it was hard for me to pass secretions, then again they were frequent and obliged me to get up during the night. Finally I got Doan's Kidney Pills at Evans' Pharmacy and several boxes cured me." (Statement given February 24th, 1915.) Over 22 years later, Mr. Erskine said: "I have a very bit as much faith in Doan's Kidney Pills now as when I previously recommended them. When I have noticed slight recurrences of kidney trouble through colds, a few doses of Doan's Kidney Pills have given me prompt relief."

Price 60c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Erskine had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

THRILLING ROMAN AT BIG CIRCUS FRIDAY

Revival of the Sensational Arenic Contests of the Days of Nero Shown.

A revival of the old Roman hippodrome races on an elaborate scale is promised as one of the interesting incidental features of the Barnum and Bailey Greatest Show on Earth when it here exhibits in Anderson on Friday October 22.

In connection with the Roman chariot and standing races, there will, it is announced, be a series of exciting pony races with monkey riders; tandem races, races by whipped hounds, long-leaping contests with Kenely and Arabian thoroughbreds, and many other events of interest to genuine lovers of the incitements of the racing track.

One enthusiastic writer, recently describing that most thrilling of all races, the Roman chariot race, with the Barnum and Bailey circus said: "There are half a dozen of these races. It is all thrilling—exciting—exhilarating! The first races have set your nerves vibrating; you are ready for the thrill that goes with the last mad race for victory. The horses, magnificent, thoroughbred racers, wrought to a tremendous pitch of excitement, fairly leap to the starting point. They line up with a rush; the starter cries 'Go!' and away they speed like the wind.

"It is a magnificent sight—a picture never to be forgotten!—the straining, foam-flecked horses; the charioteers, with set faces, and ribbons flying; the wheels of the chariots, cutting deep into the earth or bounding whirlingly into the air; the great crowd leaning forward—cheering—urging—expectant.

"It is the third time around—the homestretch! The horses, spurred by rein and cry, strain every nerve; the set look deepens upon the faces of the charioteers; the cries of the audience have swelled into one great roar! For a moment the horses are almost together, neck and neck. Then, in that final effort, when victory and defeat tremble in the balance, the leaders make one last, mad spurt, cross the line ahead, and win!"

A great deal of money, it is said, has been expended upon the Barnum and Bailey hippodrome this season to make it as historically correct as possible, and only expert riders and drivers of long experience are employed. This is intended to accentuate the thrilling nature of the contests, and at the same time to minimize the danger of accidents. The races, it is announced, are run on the longest and best-prepared racing track ever utilized by a traveling exhibition.

The circus performance that the Barnum and Bailey management has prepared for this season is, according to preliminary reports, of such an unusually high character as to create a new record in arena achievements. There is a big spectacular pageant, entitled "Lalla Rookh" which opens the performance; up-to-date riding, acrobatic and aerial numbers by a company of 480 European and American artists, including the only somersault equestrienne; three hours of stunts in a novel battle scene, and presented by lady trainers; a combined acrobatic and trained animal novelty; and several new trained-horse acts.

MATINEE AT ANDERSON THIS AFTERNOON 3:30

Small Attendance at Benefit Performance Last Night for U. D. C.

Last night the smallest crowd of the engagement enjoyed the benefit production of "The Sweetest Girl in Dixie." The play was given for the benefit of the Dixie Chapter of the U. D. C. and was not attended as it should be, and aside from being a benefit, the play was the best yet offered by the company. A worthy play, in which every member of the cast excelled in their parts. Miss St. Clair as Aunt Calline, and Lep Meyer as Uncle George were especially clever, and deserve great praise.

This company will give a matinee this evening, and the play will be the most beautiful of plays, "Peaceful Valley."

The play tonight will be the first presentation in the city, of Wedell Davis's famous play, "The Cowboy and the Thief." This is a play of thrilling situations, intense scenes, and great climaxes. With a plot that does not unfold itself until the last word has been spoken.

The company will give away at the matinee a twelve dollar set of silver, and the prize tonight will be a twenty dollar set.

The plays are clean, with good spectacles between the acts, and it is no obvious why the theatre is not filled at every performance.

A Claim to P'f'inction. "We are said to be alike in one respect," remarked an English judge upon being introduced to Henry James.

"What is that?"

"We are both noted for our long sentences."—Pittsburg Post.

"I wish Mrs. Nurick, you would come over some time and see my apary."

"Thank you, Mr. Jiggs, but really monkeys never interested me."—Buffalo Express.
